VDP Week 1, Session 1: Sew Much Fun! (Back by popular demand!)

Get ready for a week of creativity and construction in our Builders Bootcamp! This engaging course invites participants to dive into the world of building and design using a variety of different materials. Throughout the week, students will learn essential engineering principles and architectural concepts as they embark on exciting challenges. Each day will feature a new theme, from skyscrapers and bridges to whimsical fantasy structures, encouraging imaginative thinking and teamwork. Students will collaborate in small groups, developing their communication and problem-solving skills as they bring their ideas to life. By the end of the week, participants will showcase their final projects in a mini-exhibition, sharing their creative processes and proud accomplishments with friends and teachers. Join us for a fun-filled week where creativity meets construction, and every idea can become a reality!
